

DEPARTMENT OF THE ARMY
RESEARCH DEVELOPMENT AND ENGINEERING CENTER
PICATINNY ARSENAL, NJ 07806-5000

REPLY TO ATTENTION OF:

AMSRD-AAR-DD

Subject: Installation Access and Personal Conduct on Armed Forces Day

1. Those individuals attending the installation's Armed Forces Day observance and activities on May 9, 2009 are expected to conduct themselves appropriately on U. S. Government property.

- All attendees must have valid identification. Those driving onto the installation must have valid vehicle registration, proof of insurance and a valid driver's license. All vehicles and their contents entering the installation are subject to inspection.
- Attendees must comply with all state and federal laws including traffic laws while they are guests on the installation.
- Attendees may not bring alcoholic beverages onto the installation. Only alcoholic beverages sold by approved vendors in designated areas may be consumed.
- Attendees may not bring backpacks, coolers, oversized bags, signs large posters and other large items onto the installation.
- All attendees must be appropriately dressed and wear shirts and shoes.
- Demonstrations supporting any cause are prohibited. Demonstrators will be asked to leave and may be escorted off the installation.
- Attendees may not bring personal weapons onto the installation. The possession of illegal drugs and weapons violates state and federal law. Anyone found to be in possession of these items on the installation may be arrested and prosecuted.

2. Individuals who attempt to enter the installation in violation of any part of this policy may be denied entry. Anyone on the grounds who found to be in violation may be asked to comply or leave the installation. Individuals engaging in disorderly conduct may be arrested and issued violation notices for that conduct.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Russell J. Hrdy", is positioned above the typed name.

Russell J. Hrdy
Colonel, US Army
Acting Senior Commander