COL Cummings Receives the Bronze Star for Service in Afghanistan

Brigadier General Jonathan A. Maddux, Picatinny Senior Commander and Program Executive Officer for Ammunition, presented COL Cummings with a Bronze Star Medal for meritorious services as the PEO Ammunition Forward Representative in Afghanistan from February 25 through August 10.

COL Cummings led the training, fielding, and sustaining of PEO Ammunition products to include critical Improvised Explosive Device-Defeat systems, across the Combined Joint Operations Area – Afghanistan (CJOA-A). These vital items included SPARK II rollers and XM7 Spider Area Denial systems, among others. In addition, COL Cummings oversaw the performance of more than 230 Department of Army civilians, contracts, and service representatives across the CJOA-A.
